

CAMP JACK WRIGHT

Directions to Camp Jack Wright From: The Tannehill State Park Entrance Gate

1. Pass through the entrance gate at the small ranger station (Gate House).
2. Make an immediate left turn.
3. Stay on this main road. Proceed past the state park public campground on the right and the Tannehill Event Center on the left.
4. Continue to the narrow gauge railroad crossing. Cross the tracks and continue up the road.
5. At Mill Creek cross the Tapawingo Bridge into Farley Field.
6. As soon as the bridge is crossed, make an immediate right turn.
7. Proceed to and cross a small wooden bridge.
8. Not far past the wooden bridge there will be a narrow dirt road. This road can be identified by a small sign that says: Hikers and authorized vehicles only! (Old Bucksville/Montevallo Stage Road.) There is a larger sign that says: Old Montevallo Stage Road ca 1830. At the beginning of this road, there is also a sign that has Camp Jack Wright engraved on it.
9. This is the road to the Camp Jack Wright gate. Scout troop, Cub pack and Venture vehicles are authorized, continue up the road. Camp Jack Wright is a short distance away.
10. The Camp Jack Wright Gate will be on the left.
 - Alert: The last unit to vacate camp must close and lock the Camp Jack Wright gate. The state park is not responsible for securing the Greater Alabama Council property. Your assistance is appreciated by the Camp Jack Wright Committee.
