GREATER ALABAMA COUNCIL

2020 Membership Recruitment Playbook

MEMBERSHIP RECRUITMENT OVERVIEW:

Scouting changes lives and Inviting new families to join Scouting is one of the most important things we can do to impact our communities and forward the Scouting movement.

This annual process begins by working to ensure all youth and unit's recharter in December. Focus is placed on ensuring all Cub Scouts cross over into Scouts BSA. Scouting unit's run Spring and Fall Recruitment Events to invite families to join. Lastly, we work to start new units throughout the year, offering more locations for families to participate in Scouting.

Sustaining strong membership in a unit depends not only on having new members join the unit but also on engaging youth and their families in the unit experience so that they stay. The unit role of New Member Coordinator helps to ensure that these keys to success take place. All units should have at least one registered New Member Coordinator who implements the unit membership plan and collaborates membership efforts with District leadership.

2020 JOURNEY TO EXCELLENCE:

The District Membership Committee works annually to achieve the following Journey to Excellence items:

- #3 – Membership Growth – Increase the number of registered youth in Scouting
- #4 – Community Impact – Maintain or Increase market share (program density)
- #5 – New Member Recruiting – Cub Scouts recruited equals 3%+ of TAY (Total Available Youth)

CUB SCOUT FALL RECRUITMENT PLAN

PURPOSE & OBJECTIVES

- To ensure every family receives a personal invitation to sign-up for Scouting
- To ensure every elementary school has a Sign-up Night held at the school. (this is important because research shows that parents are substantially more likely to attend the event if it is at a location that they are familiar with. Schools are a neutral site)
- To ensure every Pack holds a Parent Orientation Meeting within a week of their Sign-up Night(s)
- To enroll prospective youth into existing packs
- To recruit the parents as Unit Leaders and volunteers
- To organize new Cub Scout Packs to better serve local youth and families
- To strengthen relations with our local schools

OVERVIEW

- Unit Leadership working with the support of the District Membership Committee:
 - Promotes, plans, and executes a Sign-up Night at each elementary school the Pack recruits from. These events should happen within the first 6 weeks of school beginning.
 - Plans and Organizes a Parent Orientation Meeting held within a week of the Sign-up Night(s) to welcome new families, share the packs annual activity/funding plan, hand out handbooks and rockets, and fill vacancies in pack leadership.
- The District Membership Committee assigns which schools each pack recruits from and ensures that a Sign-up Night is held at every elementary school.
- The District Membership Committee identifies and targets locations for new Packs to be started. All youth are to be invited to sign-up for Scouting. If a Pack only recruits boys, then a new Girl Pack should be started to recruit at the elementary school. Single gender packs do not hold exclusivity rights on any elementary schools.
- Unit Leadership with the support and direction of the District Membership Committee follows the 5 Steps to a Successful Fall Recruitment. That includes:
 - Step 1: Organize your Volunteer Team
 - Step 2: Heavy Promotion and Scout Talks
 - Step 3: Hold Sign-up Night(s) at each Elementary School
 - Step 4: Turn-in Paperwork & Receive your Free Cub Scout Handbooks
 - Step 5: Hold your Parent Orientation Meeting

TRACKING

Cub Scout Fall Recruitment requires a lot of organization and tracking to manage the success of the campaign. The District Membership Tracker will help collect dates and manage the overall campaign. It is the responsibility of the District Executive to keep this tracker updated and readily available for their volunteers. This tracking tool will help you know which packs recruit from what schools, the result for each Sign-up Night, and the available follow up opportunities.

A Council level report will also be kept and updated via Flyer order forms and reports given by the District Executive. This report will be e-mailed out to the membership volunteers every Friday afternoon with updates on the campaign.

A focus is placed on lead indicators such as: # of Sign-up Night's scheduled, # of facilitators recruited, # of Superintendents and Principals visited, # of flyers orders etc. These will help us know that we are on track for a successful Fall Recruitment campaign.

BENCHMARK MEETINGS

Benchmark Meetings are an essential part of your Cub Scout Fall Recruitment campaign and will help your team maintain accountability and build excitement as they see more youth join Cub Scouting in your District and throughout the Council.

Council Benchmark Meetings:

- The Council holds monthly benchmark meetings between July and October as part of the campaign.
- The purpose of these meetings is to build energy and excitement by bring together the District Cub Scout Fall Recruitment teams to report on the District's progress, share best practices, and success stories.

July 30 th	2:00pm
Aug 27 th	2:00pm
Sept 24 th	2:00pm
Oct 29 th	2:00pm

District Benchmark Meetings:

- Benchmark Meetings at the District level should be held weekly during the campaign.
- The Cub Scout Recruitment Chair leads these meetings with the support of the District Executive.
- Fall Recruitment Facilitators and other key New Unit Coordinators should be in attendance.
- These meetings can be held in person, conference call or a combination of both.
- The goal of the District report meeting is to create an atmosphere of progress and success during your campaign and to use these report meetings to generate ideas among your volunteers on how to make strategic changes that need to be made in the middle of the campaign to improve your result in coming presentations.

PROMOTION

Marketing, advertising, and promoting each Sign-up Night is vital to our recruitment efforts. Step 2: Heavy Promotion & Scout Talk section of the 5 steps to a successful fall recruitment provides many ideas.

- Sign-up Nights Scheduled – Before we can promote the Sign-up Night we need to know the date, thus getting the date scheduled as early as possible is important. Additionally, once the date is set, changing it will have a negative impact. Sign-up Nights should be set early, coordinated with the local principal and double checked for possible conflicts in advance of turning in the flyer & sticker order form.
- Recruitment Event Flyer Order Form – Through this form we will track and provide support for the Sign-up night. If possible, paid Facebook advertising will be set up based on the information on the form. Once a flyer & sticker order form is submitted it CANNOT be changed. Funds will have been allocated to print the flyers, sticker, and if possible, the 10-day Facebook advertising will be set in motion. See Flyer & Sticker Order Form for more details.
- Unit Promotion of Sign-up Night – Packs that recruit the most youth have a coordinated advertising plan that all current families participate in. These efforts are set up in advance, often at the Back to the Pack event. (See Step 2: Heavy Promotion & Scout Talks of the 5 steps to a successful Fall Recruitment)
- School Access – Knowing in advance what the Pack can do in relation to each elementary school and promoting their Sign-up Night helps the unit leadership and Facilitators create a marketing plan that can maximize youth recruitment. School access varies across the Council and where barriers exist, additional resources will be deployed to boost promotions, providing opportunities for families to hear and see how to join Scouting. By understanding what is and isn't allowed in a school and/or school district early, we can collaborate and plan how to utilize our volunteer and financial resources to grow Scouting.
- National Support & Awareness – Typically from July to November, the National Marketing Department provides various advertising support that normally includes:
 - Google Search Adds - Over 300 search terms will direct consumers to beascout.org allowing them to input their zip code and find a local unit. Make sure your BeaScout.org pin is updated.
 - Social Media Awareness Campaigns – Awareness videos and images will be pushed through social media outlets to help share the message how Scouting can positively impact families.
- Possible Facebook Geofencing/Advertising – To assist our Pack's in their efforts we hope to provide 10-day paid advertising for every elementary school, but this will depend greatly on available finances. If implemented, ads will be automatically created based on the unit flyer & sticker order forms.
 - A Facebook event will be created for your Sign-up night and a pin will be dropped on the address of the elementary school. Any person who enters the radius of the pin who is in our target audience will see the event show up in their Facebook newsfeed. The event will list the child's school by name, with contact information for the local leaders. All this information is based on the information gathered from the flyer order form.
 - Sign-up Nights must be held at the local elementary school and cannot be held at another location to qualify for the paid advertising. Families are significantly more likely to attend the event if it is held at their local elementary school vs a church or other location. Please remember that the Sign-up Night is different from the parent orientation meeting.

BACK TO THE PACK LETTER

Packs will receive a letter by June 1st regarding plans for Cub Scout Fall Recruitment. This is in addition to phone calls and emails that they may get from their District Membership Committee. The letter encourages the Pack to hold a Back to the Pack event to reengage existing Cub Scouts and enlist their help with Fall recruitment prior to the beginning of the school year. The Pack Leadership Needs form will be attached, and the Pack is invited to attend the District Fall Recruitment Kick-off & Training.

FULL FAMILY SCOUTING

Cub Scouts is designed for parents to spend time with their children. Families today are busier and more diverse than ever. Most are dual-earners and there are more single-parent households than ever before. Convenient programs that serve the whole family are appealing. Parents are searching for youth programs that allow them to participate as a family. For this reason, we have welcomed girls into our iconic Cub Scout Program.

This change is more than just adding girls to girl dens, it is a NEW WAY to operate a Cub Scout Pack where den meetings are now held on the same day, at the same time and at the same location. This gives Parents a dedicated night for Scouting. Families can enjoy a joint opening flag ceremony and then split for their single-gender den meetings only to come back together and share what exciting things they accomplished.

Please help us share this message. Parents no longer need to transport their son to one location and daughter to another. Just one night a week for Family Scouting, attending Pack and den meetings together, making great Scouting memories. We've discovered that parents are more likely to volunteer because it's easier for them.

STARTING NEW CUB SCOUT PACKS

Every elementary aged youth should be given the opportunity to be a Scout. They should all be invited to sign-up and participate in this great program. With the addition of Girls to our Cub Scout Program it is vital that we work to have units available for them to join. Ideally, Family Packs that serve the entire family are available.

As part of the fall recruitment plan the District Membership Committee identifies and targets locations for new Packs to be started. Currently we are underserving our new Cub Scout Girl population. If a Pack only recruits boys, then a new Girl Pack should be started to recruit at the elementary school. Single gender packs do not hold exclusivity rights on any elementary schools and all School recruitment assignments are assigned by the District membership committee. If no Pack recruits from a school, then a new Family Pack should be started.

- New Girl Packs – When a Boy only Pack recruits at the school, invite both boys & girls to attend the school's sign-up night. Do flyers, stickers, & Scout talks for all the youth inviting them to attend the School's Sign-up Night. At the Sign-up Night set up 2 tables, one for the Boy Pack and one for a new all Girl Pack. Sign-up the girls and invite the families to the Parent Orientation Meeting.
 - Prior to the Sign-up Night you'll need to set a Date and location for the Parent Orientation meeting and create a Pack information flyer with as much information as possible.
- Parent Orientation Meeting for a New Pack – Follow the same plan and program you would for an existing pack, share with them as much as you can about Cub Scouting, present a funding plan and draft program plan, and recruit the parent using the "Magic Circle". At the end of the meeting you will know what volunteer positions you are still needing to fill.
- Chartered Organization – At this point you may not have a Chartered Organization for the new pack. That's ok. Share this with the new families and ask them to help you identify and meet with a potential Chartered Organization.
- Training - As this process plays out, help the newly recruited parents get trained, either online or at an in-person training. Make sure they attend the upcoming rocket academy and that Den meetings and Pack meeting are scheduled and are happening. Make sure to involve your District Commissioner and Commissioner Corps during the process.

Every Elementary School should have a Sign-up Night for both Boys & Girls. DO NOT let any Cub Scout leaders deny Cub Scouting to a family simply because they happen to have a daughter instead of a son.

THE “MAGIC CIRCLE”

Cub Scouting is designed for parents to spend time with their children. The volunteer model of our organization is unique when compared to other youth programs and as a result new parents are not necessarily expecting to be asked to volunteer or actively participate. It is vitally important that every parent is asked to serve in a volunteer role at their 1st Cub Scout meeting which should be the Parent Orientation Meeting.

Whatever the experience new parents have at the parent orientation meeting, they will typically mimic for the rest of their time in Scouting. For example: if the new parents are engaged and asked to volunteer at their first meeting, then they will continue to volunteer during their entire time in Scouting; whereas if the parents are not asked to volunteer then they tend to never take an active leadership role in the Pack. This behavior tends to continue during their entire time in Scouting.

Recruiting new parents as volunteers at their 1st meeting is vital to the long-term success of the Pack.

The Magic Circle: Steps to Success

1. Room Set-up:

- It is important that the meeting room for your New Parent Orientation be set up by Tables separated by Dens. Table Tents are available for each of the Dens: Lion, Tiger, Wolf, Bear, Webelos, Arrow of Light for both Boys & Girls.
- As families arrive, welcome them and ask them to sit in their new Den.

2. Ask Someone at the Den Table to Take Notes / Be the Scribe:

- Ask him/her to write down the vacant positions needing filled. If the Pack has completed the Leadership Needs form, then they will know what key positions are needed.
- Have the scribe list a position for all the adults sitting at the table (nobody gets left out)
 - For example, if 5 people are at the table, list 5 positions.
 - Positions can be: Den Leader, Assistant Den Leader, Pack Committee Member, etc.
- Inform the group that they'll need to have a discussion and decide who will do each job.
 - Just say “We’ll let you talk amongst yourselves and well be back in a second”
 - Walk to the next table and repeat the process
 - It is key that you stay away from them and give them time to discuss. If you stand to close they will look to you to make assignments for them.
 - If they ask you questions, answer them, but don’t give answers that are to long.
 - For example: If they ask what a Den Leader is? tell them and then add “Don’t worry, we’ll train you, it’s really easy”
 - Keep encouraging the parents to decide until they have a complete team
- Why this is Important:
 - When these families arrive, they don’t know each other but they need to. These parents will be in the same Den, they’ll need to reach out to each other and support each other. Forcing them to talk to each other helps them start the process of forming a team which will be vitally important for the new Den to have success.
 - Think of it this way, the next meeting these families will have will most likely be their Den Meeting. Will the Cub Master be there? No. Will the District Executive be there? No. Will the Committee Chair be there? No. The only people who will be there are the ones sitting at the table. Getting them to talk to each other and build friendships is vital to keeping them engaged and involved in Scouting.

3. Upon Returning:

- Provide adult applications for the new leaders and explain Youth Protection Training.
- Make sure they have shared their contact information with each other
- Fill out the New Den Roster form and give carbon copies to Cub Master & Committee Chair

Membership Recruitment Playbook For Scouts BSA & Venturing

MEMBERSHIP RECRUITMENT OVERVIEW:

Inviting new families to join Scouting is the most important thing we can do. Inviting older youth to join Scouting can prove difficult as traditional recruitment methods or those methods used to recruit Cub Scout aged youth generally produce poor results.

A steady flow of youth into your Troop or Crew is essential to maintaining the unit's health. New Scouts bring energy and enthusiasm to the program. To avoid the pitfall of shrinking membership, the unit should add at least 10 new Scouts every year. Having a year-round growth plan in place will help attract new Scouts.

The first step for any recruitment effort is to appoint a New Member Coordinator. This person oversees the recruitment efforts of the unit. They develop and implement a year-round growth plan that incorporates all methods of recruitment. They work closely with Cub Scout packs in the community, the district membership committee, and the unit commissioner.

There are three actions to follow to guarantee recruiting success:

1. Graduate Webelos into the troop.
2. Host a Recruitment Event(s)
3. Encourage continual peer-to-peer recruiting.

ACTION 1: GRADUATE WEBELOS SCOUTS INTO TROOP

This is for Scouts BSA Troops. The year-round growth plan is designed to facilitate Scout recruitment and pack-troop relations. To carry out the plan, the troop's New Member Coordinator will need to remember some important guidelines:

1. Work closely with a nearby Cub Scout pack.
2. Prepare an effective Webelos-to-Scout plan.
3. Make new Scouts and their parents feel welcome.

At the beginning of the recruitment process, the troop should align with a Cub Scout pack in the community. If more than one troop draws its new Scouts from this pack, contact the leadership of the other troops and design a plan to work together with the pack. Offer the use of your troop's equipment and expertise to the Cubmaster and the Webelos den leaders, and work with them to develop an effective Webelos-to-Scout plan, following the year-round calendar provided below.

Use the Second-Year Webelos Scout Tracking form to collect information on each second-year Webelos Scout. The information will be invaluable as the year-round plan is implemented. The form helps track the Webelos Scouts' progress toward joining Scouts BSA.

Lastly, ensure that the Scouts and their parents have a smooth transition from the Webelos den to the troop. Make the Scouts and their parents feel welcome and at ease in the new troop environment, and recruit parents of the new Scouts to become assistant Scoutmasters and troop committee members.

The activities recommended in this plan will help stimulate youth interest in the Scouts BSA program. Implementing the plan involves the active involvement of adult and youth leaders of the troop as well as the leadership of the Cub Scout pack.

WEBELOS TO SCOUT TRANSITION TIMETABLE

August

- Get names, addresses, and telephone numbers of second-year Webelos.
- Plan a joint Scout troop/Webelos den camping trip for October.
- Plan a program of upcoming events to present at a Webelos den meeting visit in November.
- Select a den chief for each Webelos den.

September

- Work on rank advancement with new Scouts.

ACTION 2: HOST A RECRUITMENT EVENT

The best form of recruitment for youth ages 11+ is EVENT RECRUITMENT. The Troop or Crew holds a fun event and invites others to attend the event. This type of recruitment yields the greatest return, is easy for the unit to implement and generally unit leaders are excited to do it.

All Troops and Crews should hold a recruitment event annually in the fall to invite and recruit youth to join their program. If executed correctly, this event will help ensure the longevity of the unit and will ensure the youth receive a Mountain-Top Scouting Experience.

There are 5 Steps to follow to guarantee a successful recruitment event:

1. Annual Program Plan & Funding Plan
2. Unit Plans an Event
3. Promote the Event
4. Hold the Event
5. Paperwork and Follow-up

Step 1: Annual Program Plan & Funding Plan

- The 1st step to a successful Recruitment plan is to have a strong annual program planned a year in advance that is shared with prospective youth and families in the form of a calendar. Accompanied with this plan should be a funding plan that outlines how all the activities listed in the calendar are paid for.
- This will answer the 2 BIG questions that parents have: What are we going to do? & how much is it going to cost?
- Any youth or adult should be able to quickly share this information with anyone who asks.
- Unit Leaders receive training on how to develop this plan ever spring at the May Program Planning Roundtable. For more info please see the Council Program Planning Page on the Council website.

Step 2: Unit plans an Event

- This event can be anything but should be something fun and exciting! The event can be on a weeknight or held over the weekend. (Remember that all prospective youth who attend an event with your unit, who are considering joining Scouting are covered by our Council's liability and health insurance, there is no additional risk in inviting youth to your event.)
 - Examples include high adventure activities such as: Indoor or Outdoor Rock Climbing, Mountain Biking, Camping Trip, Caving, Downhill Skiing, Whitewater Rafting, Shotgun Shooting, Pistol Shooting (Ventures), Black Powder Shooting, Archery, Hiking, cross country skiing, sail boats, kayaks, etc.
 - Examples can also include fun activities such as: Slack Lining in the Park, Frisbee Golf, Swimming, Fishing, Theme parks, exciting community service events, etc.
 - A regular unit meeting is NOT a good event to use, unless you are doing something exciting such as Dutch oven cooking or fire building. The bigger the event, the higher the success rate. Most units can simply coordinate their recruitment efforts with an event they are already doing such as attending a District Camporee.

Step 3: Promote the Event

- Peer to Peer recruitment is the most successful form of promotion for Troop & Crew recruitment events. The BSA Provides Peer to Peer recruitment cards which can be found online. These business card sized promotional items allow each youth to pass them out to their friends at school, inviting them to attend the fun event.
- Facebook, Twitter, Snapchat & Social Media. Youth over the age of 14 are heavily involved in social media and units should encourage their youth to utilize their social networks to invite others to join.
- Let the youth come up with how they think it can be promoted and let them impress you with their ingenuity!
- Traditional Promotion: Flyers, Posters, Stickers, Yard Signs Etc. These traditional forms of promotion are available to Units via the District Membership Committee and District Executive. Pre-printed flyers are available at no cost to the unit.

Step 4: Hold the Event

- Hold the planned event and have fun!
- Invite all the youth who attended to sign up that same day. If possible, encourage them to sign up before the event.
- Share with the youth the annual program plan and funding plan. Tell them about all of the fun things you will be doing over the next few months/year.
- Make sure you do after-event promotion. Let the older youth share pictures and videos of the fun things they did during your event. By allowing the youth to share this on their social media you will dramatically increase awareness and interest in your unit.

Step 5: Paperwork and Follow-up

- Follow-up with all new Scouts and parents to make them feel welcome and part of the unit
- Follow-up with any youth who attended the event but did not join. Invite them to participate in an upcoming event
- Promptly get all new youth paperwork turned into the office
- Report you're the results of your recruitment event to your District Membership Committee

ACTION 3: ENCOURAGE CONTINUAL PEER-TO-PEER RECRUITING

The most effective recruiter in Scouting is a Scout who is enthusiastic about his Troop or Crew. Troops that have a strong annual plan that can easily be shared with prospective youth and parents find that youth will continually join their unit. Having a system in place that allows your Scouts to invite their friends to participate in activities is essential to sustainable growth. In general, if the troop is active with trained leaders, it becomes very easy for each Scout to sell his friends on coming, participating and eventually joining.

As the Troop or Crew prepares for activities and events be sure to include incentives that encourage each Scout to invite friends from school, church or their neighborhood to tag along. Remember that a candidate for First Class Scout must invite someone to attend a troop meeting or activity. Recruiter patches are available to Scouts who recruit a friend to join the troop.

Membership Recruitment Playbook For Exploring

EXPLORING MEMBERSHIP RECRUITMENT OVERVIEW:

Exploring is a career education, worksite-based program of Learning for Life, an affiliate of the Boy Scouts of America. Participants in the program are called Explorers. The program serves youth in 6th-8th grades (Exploring clubs), and young men and women who are 14 through 20 years old (Exploring posts). Exploring units (clubs or posts), are sponsored by local businesses, government agencies, and nonprofit organizations, and usually focus on a single career field, but can also introduce youth to a variety of career fields within a single unit.

The Open House is the programs annual exposure to prospective members. Prospective members are invited to come out again and join exploring. This recruitment event is meant to be exciting, with hands-on activities and sufficient information so that those in attendance know how the Post runs and how-to sign-up. All Exploring Post should hold an annual Open House between August and September.

THE OPEN HOUSE

Objective: to aid Post Advisors and Committee members in developing quality Post program and growing their youth membership. The Open House is the big kickoff for the Post. It is the easiest way to recruit lots of new participants at one time. This is when most prospective Explorers will decide whether they want to join the Post.

First Steps

1. Confirm completion of Explorer leader training and Youth Protection training by all adults who will be registered in your program.
2. Set the date. This was most likely completed during the All-In-One Program Planning meeting.
3. Confirm whether your organization plans to set a participation fee in addition to the annual registration fee. This fee may help subsidize the cost of meeting activities, uniforms or shirts, equipment, etc.

Promote Your Open House

Promoting your open house may seem to be a daunting task, but if you carry out the following suggestions you are guaranteed to have high attendance no matter the type of community or the type of program you are starting. Remember to include all committee members in the process.

1. Deliver personal letters of invitation to students from the head of the organization, printed on the organization's letterhead.
2. Have the committee make a personal phone call to each student to follow up on the letter. If you don't have phone numbers, deliver a reminder note (short and sweet is best).
3. Be sure the person answering the phone number listed in the invitation letter and other promotional materials has the open house information and can explain the basics of the Exploring program.
4. Hang Exploring posters with open house information on front doors of the school, front office of the school, counselor's office, and library.
5. Hang Exploring posters in the front lobby of the participating organization.
6. Post open house information on your council website or calendar.
7. Post open house information on the school website or calendar.
8. Post open house information on the participating organization's website or calendar.
9. Include information on the school's marquee.
10. Include information on the participating organization's marquee.
11. Include information in all area schools' daily announcements during the week leading up to the open house.
12. Have the committee set up a booth during a school or community career fair. (This step can be done any time of the year as an additional recruitment effort.)
13. Have all the participating organization's staff members email everyone in their own contact lists, inviting them to attend. As the professional, you should create this email, and simply ask them to copy and paste it into a new email to their contacts.
14. Find out what methods the participating organization uses to communicate with the local community and utilize those same methods.
15. Promote the open house on your council's Facebook page.
16. Promote the open house on the participating organization's Facebook page.

Personal Invitation Letters

The local Exploring office can provide the names and addresses of young adults who are interested in career fields based on career interest survey results. If schools are not willing to provide student directory information (name, address, etc.), print the letters and ask counselors to deliver them to students themselves. Remember to offer to put labels on envelopes for him or her. Letters of invitation should be sent to two distinct groups: prospective Explorers and former or current Explorers, if applicable.

Effective letters of invitation:

- Are printed on the participating organization's letterhead.
- Are signed by the executive officer.
- Are personalized ("Dear Tom," not "Dear Prospective Explorer").
- Do not appear to be a mass mailing or junk mail.
- Encourage young adults to bring their friends.
- Include an attachment with directions and parking information.
- Highlight the activities planned for the meeting.
- Request a response.
- Inform attendees of the minimal participation fee, which may cover accident and sickness insurance coverage (see chapter five for more information on this coverage).
- Mention that the Explorer's presence is valuable in relating with other young adults with their same career interest.

Here are some messages most likely to attract the attention of teens:

- Financial success in career field
- College endorsement of career field
- Increased opportunity to obtain a job in an exclusive field
- Hands-on learning approach
- Fun and entertaining

Conduct the Open House

Rehearse, rehearse, and rehearse! Refer to the sample open house agenda in the appendix. Conduct a walkthrough of the plan developed by the post or club committee and Advisors/Sponsors. Look for minor details that, if overlooked, might cause a problem in the program. Walk through the meeting facility at least one day in advance. Also consider having on hand extension cords for equipment, snacks and refreshments, enough seating (if applicable), and pens for signing participation forms. Make sure that audiovisual equipment is in working order (if needed), enough copies of the post's program calendar are on hand, the room temperature is comfortable, and that you have safety equipment in youth sizes, directional signs, door greeters, a cash box, and a person designated to collect money. Ensure the head of the participating organization is present to personally express the company's interest in Exploring. Help prepare the executive officer beforehand with the aims of Exploring and Exploring terminology so he or she appears prepared and knowledgeable. Avoid references to Scouting, Boy Scouts, and Explorer Scouts. Exploring is the worksite-based career exploration program of Learning for Life, an affiliate of the Boy Scouts of America.

Conduct the meeting as planned. All members of the program committee and all Advisors/Sponsors should be present for name and face recognition, to answer questions from parents or young adults, and to handle any unforeseen circumstances (restock refreshments, etc.).

Paperwork & Money

- Have enough quantities of the Exploring Youth and Adult applications. The bottom copy of these applications serves as receipts.
- Have all prospective Explorers who wish to join, or who are even thinking of joining, fill in their information on a sign-in sheet even if they do not complete an application.
- Be sure to obtain ALL information, as it is vital to proper registration.
- The Post Committee Chairperson should ask parents who are present to volunteer to serve on the Post Committee.
- Collect enough funds from each new Explorer and adult. Local registration fees should be collected separate from Post dues.
- Ensure ALL prospective Explorers have a copy of the Post Program Calendar before they leave.
- Submit the completed forms and required fees to your Service Team volunteer, District Executive or Council office within 48 hours.

Follow-up letters

The head of the participating organization should send a letter to each new Explorer or renewing Explorer the day following the Open House thanking him or her for participating and share the organization head's excitement about the Exploring Post's program.

The participating organization should consider a phone follow-up or follow-up letter with each prospective Explorer who was unable to attend – those young adults are probably still interested but may have had a scheduling conflict on the 1st nighter date. Depending on the number of follow-up calls, this may be done by the participating organization or divided up amongst the Post Committee members.

STEP 9: Evaluation

What did we intend to do? What actually happened? What worked well that we should keep doing? What should we do differently next time to make a better impact? These questions should be asked of each of the adult leaders and Post Committee members shortly after the Open House while everything is still fresh in everyone's minds. The results of the critique should be maintained for the Post Officers for planning the next Open House.

HELPFUL RECRUITING TIPS

- The best recruiters in any Post are the Explorers themselves. Ask each explorer to list three to five prospective participants on cards. Then have the exploring youth leaders sort the cards and eliminate duplication. The names are reviewed at a post meeting, and those who know the people best are assigned to invite them to a meeting. Don't assign more than three prospects to a post participant. Set a target date for the contacts to be completed, with regular reports on progress.
- Contact the school nearest you and set up a recruiting display at a lunch period a day or two during the week and recruit in person with an advisor and/or a couple of Explorers.
- Many posts place meeting notices or posters in schools or young adult centers. Radio and newspaper publicity could feature your post and invite those interested to attend an open house.
- Ensure prospective participants welcome. See to it that post participants circulate among the prospects and encourage them to join.
- Get names, addresses, and phone numbers. Call them right after the meeting and invite them to the next meeting.
- Turnover in participation is normal. Watch your attendance, contact participants who miss two or three meetings, and continually encourage post participants to look for and invite prospects.

KEY FACTORS FOR A SUCCESSFUL POST

A. Use Post resources. Inventory information about adults related to the chartered organization and parents who are willing to provide program help the Post. This program help may involve their career knowledge, hobbies, special skills, contacts, facilities, and ideas.

B. Get parents involved. Encourage parents to become involved in Exploring activities whenever possible:

- 1) Serve on the Post committee;
- 2) Provide transportation, equipment, chaperoning, counseling, and planning to support activities;
- 3) Assist in career, service, leadership, character, life skills, and social activities.

C. Seek youth input. Have each Post member complete the Explorer Activity Interest Survey. Conduct the survey on a regular basis to check on the interests of new members.

D. Guide youth leadership. Youth officers are elected and trained to lead, plan, and make decisions regarding the implementation of Post programs and activities. They should serve long enough to have successful experiences. The Post president should appoint a committee to draft the Post bylaws (see the Resources section of www.learningforlife.org/exploring).

E. Hold regular Post meetings. A minimum of two Explorer Post meetings should be held each month. Fewer than twice a month and Explorers tend to forget about the Post. Discuss important business first. Reserve the remaining time for a planned activity. These activities could be learning new skills (i.e. CPR, rappelling, first aid, a career seminar, computer programming, etc.) or preparing for a high-adventure trip or activity. The Post president conducts Post meetings. A detailed, written agenda should be developed for each meeting. The program vice president and activity chairman make regular phone calls to program presenters or consultants. The president should ensure that all Post meetings start on time. All meetings should have an opening and a closing. Guests should be introduced and made to feel welcome.

F. Train and develop youth officers. The Post officers' seminar. The seminar is a training and planning session for newly elected officers. It is led by the Advisor, youth president, and the associate Advisors. A success fill seminar provides a clear road map for the coming months and enables the officers to begin assuming leadership of the Post.

G. Give recognition for achievement. Young adults expect to be rewarded for their accomplishments. There are several recognition programs and scholarship opportunities available to Explorers, including Career Achievement Awards, Learning for Life Leadership Award, Young American Award, and Congressional Awards to name a few. The Exploring Office has more information, or you can find it on the website at www.learningforlife.org/exploring.

H. Maintain a well-rounded program. Use the Five Areas of Emphasis as a guide to plan programs that will help maintain interest and meet the goals and objectives of the Exploring Program. Find more program information on the website at www.learningforlife.org/exploring. Contact your Council office for more information about Adult Explorer Leader Training and the Exploring Advanced Leadership Development Workshop.
