

SCOUTREACH CORPS

Mentor – Support – Guide - Strengthen

The Greater Alabama Council Scoutreach Corps is a service opportunity for motivated Scouting volunteers to immerse themselves in the community, working side-by-side with Scouts, parents, and leaders to tackle the most pressing challenges of our inner-city neighborhoods. The Scoutreach Corps is a way for Scouters, Eagle Scout, Parents, and Scouting Alumni to give back to Scouting by donating their time, talents, and skills to help our most needy Scouts. Donate a few hours, a day, or a weekend to directly help Scouts enrolled in our Council’s Scoutreach Program.

Ways the Scoutreach Corps Volunteers:

- Transport Scouts to meetings
- Be a Merit Badge Counselor
- Help with Pack & Den Meeting
- Be a mentor for Leaders & Scouts
- Help get new units started
- Help Scouts attend District events
- Attend Day Camp as a Walking Den Leader
- Attend Summer Camp as an Assistant SM
- Attend campouts as an Adult Leader
- Help recruit & support new Leaders
- Help recruit new youth into the program
- Help Scouts sell popcorn & camp cards
